DISCOVER FORT SAN MARCOS DE APALACHE

Call for Pricing

The fort was first established by the Spanish in 1660, and later by the English, American, Native Americans and Confederate forces. Portions of the Spanish bastion walls and later Confederate earthworks are still present. Join Phil Gerrell, local archeologist/historian, for a walking tour through the historic fortification ruins and grounds including the cemetery. A tour of the museum is also included. Meet at front entrance to the fort.
